Tasting Notes

Lovely, elegant aromas of baked cherries, mocha, dark chocolate, cinnamon bark, and just a faint waft of floral perfume fill the glass at first pour. As the wine opens, a touch of vanilla, cedar, and bay leaf slowly add dimension to the aromatic profile on this enticing blend. On the palate, the texture is soft and full at entry, with very fruit-forward flavors. The long, lingering finish of cherries/ cherry jam, warm raspberries on the vine, and a touch of vanilla beckon the taster to take another sip!
