Tasting Notes

A complex bouquet of warm rose petals, a hint of eucalyptus and lime peel, and savory notes of cracked pepper and bacon give this wine a fascinating first glance.

On the palate, this very ripe Malbec shows firm structure surrounded by present (but not drying) tannins, baked berry compote aside savory notes of beef fat and fresh earth suggest that this wine will continue to gain complexity with added years in the bottle. The creamy complexity at the finish, however, makes it a joy to drink now! 48 cases produced. - Celia Welch.
